Please read the following important notices as they may affect your rights.

This is an attempt to collect a debt and any information obtained will be used for that purpose. This communication is from a debt collector.

New York Residents: New York City Consumer Affairs license number 1204239

Debt collectors, in accordance with the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1692 et seq., are prohibited from engaging in abusive, deceptive, and unfair debt collection efforts, including but not limited to: the use or threat of violence; the use of obscene or profane language; and repeated phone calls made with the intent to annoy, abuse, or harass.

If a creditor or debt collector receives a money judgment against you in court, state and federal laws may prevent the following types of income from being taken to pay the debt: 1) Supplemental security income (SSI); 2) Social Security; 3) Public assistance (welfare); 4) Spousal support, maintenance (alimony) or child support; 5) Unemployment benefits; 6) Disability benefits; 7) Workers compensation benefits; 8) Public or private pensions; 9) Veterans benefits; 10) Federal student loans, federal student grants, and federal work study funds; and 11) Ninety percent of your wages or salary earned in the last sixty days.
